NEWS OF THE MORNING.

A new counterfeit $10 United States note has been discovered.

Among the conveyances recorded in the Clerk's office of Mono county, N. J., is the following: "Ulysses S. Grant and wife to Caroline J. Buckley—lot at Long Branch, $25,000.

Overland shippers have received notice from the General Freight Agent of the Union Pacific road, that contracts will be renewed on the same basis as those of 1890, and guaranteeing them that the rates will be as low as may be offered by any air-line road. In the meantime it may be noted that the Union Pacific people have not been able to renew their contracts with trunk lines to Chicago.

The case of I. M. Kallioch came up for trial in the Superior Court yesterday, when the accused changed his plea from "once in jeopardy" to "not guilty and prior acquittal on same charge." It seems that when the first trial was abandoned on the ground of informality in the proceedings, an entry of acquittal was made on the records, and it will now be claimed that the Court cannot go behind the record.

The Chinese Treaty

Secretary Everts says full details of the new Chinese treaty has not been received yet, but he supposed of course they are in accordance with the instructions given to the Commissioners. In that case it will be entirely satisfactory to all sections of the country, and will carry out the views of the administration on the Chinese question as set forth in the special message and veto of the President, of the ill-advised measure passed by Congress. The emigration clauses of the treaty provide certain specific regulations to govern this perplexing question. In future emigrants will be restricted to the limits by mutual co-operation of the Chinese and American Governments, thus preventing the introduction of the low classes, which has caused so much complaint, and removing all objectionable features of the Burlingame treaty. The commercial portion of the treaty will bring China within the same relations with us enjoyed by the more favored nations. The instructions to the Commissioners were very full on this point, and the Secretary believes that the results will prove eminently satisfactory. He desired them to convey to the Government at Peking the wish of the United States to cultivate the closest relations of friendship and commerce, looking to the opening of extended reciprocal maritime relations with the two countries. Secretary Everts said that with this treaty in full force a few years will develop the fact that one-third of the cereal products of the great West, which now find their way to other markets, will be eagerly sought for in China, and that instead of England maintaining control of the China trade, as she does to-day, the United States will become her most formidable competitor.

In the excitement of the Presidential campaign several very strong strictures were made by Senators and Representatives belonging to the two parties, upon many of the public and private acts of each other. In consequence it is anticipated that some unpleasant scenes may occur when Congress meets. A friend of Conkling says he is very much aggrieved concerning the comments made upon his acts by Senator Bayard, and Bayard will be called upon for an explanation.

Blaine had a long private interview with Garfield on Friday. The conversation was of the most frank and friendly character. It is understood that Blaine gave his views of matters and things with great freedom. It is probable that these gentlemen will not meet again until the inauguration. Such being the case, Garfield was anxious to know whatever suggestions the Maine Senator wished to make.

As near as can be estimated at the present time, the public debt statement for November will not show a decrease of more than $2,000,000.

OF US.

The Sacramento Record-Union says: The Best Journal, one of the best papers in the land of sagebrush and purchasable Legislatures, has entered upon its tenth volume, and has every appearance of financial success.

The Yreka Journal has this: The Redo, New Journal has entered upon its 10th volume, and is an excellent and popular newspaper, deserving the success it has gained.

Weed has sold the Susanville Advocate to D. O. Hyer, and will now devote his entire time and attention to his Greenville paper.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Quiet times in Bodie.
Hail-storms and snow in Idaho.

Real estate is improving in San Francisco. The business outlook is favorable.

It is estimated that the wheat crop of Benton, Marion, Polk, Linn, Yamhill and Washington counties, Oregon, this year is over 7,000,000 bushels.

Roads in some portions of eastern Oregon are already in a terrible condition. That between La Grande and Union if worse, is possible, than ever before.

Building and improvements aggregating a cost of $208,000 are recorded in Walla Walla, W. T., this year. Among these is a Court-house that cost $44,000.

Santa Barbara county has thirty-one bee-keepers, and has produced for export this season 287,800 pounds of honey. The number of stands of bees, as estimated October 1st, is 3,655.

A cigar store in Tucson decorates its front window with some fine specimens of "Arizona fruit"—a Gila monster twenty inches long, a centipede twelve inches in length, and a number of huge tarantulas.

Following the custom first established by the paper the Sacramento Record-Union will on the 1st day of January, 1891, issue a mammoth edition containing valuable statistics, business review of Sacramento, and interesting special articles.

The walnut crop this year is unusually large. Owners of these orchards are realizing five times as much on their crops this year as they did last year. A farmer of Los Nietos, who had a fifteen acre orchard, has sold his crop for $1,700. The price paid by buyers is 1 1/2 cents.

The much needed rain reached Merced, Kern, Ventura, Monterey and Santa Barbara counties, on the 24th, in sufficient quantities to start the grass and enable farmers to begin plowing upon sandy and other light lands. In Humboldt county, where, in the grazing section, feed has all dried up, stock will suffer if rain is not had soon.

The Sacramento Bee says: California can boast of at least one Winter watering place, Monterey. The air there is balmy all the year, the scenery grand, the surrounding country beautiful. The temperature is an even one, and those who should know say that Honolulu is the only rival of Monterey for softness of temperature during the colder months. The Hotel del Monte will be open all Winter, and many San Francisco, and not a few Eastern, people are taking advantage thereof.

NEVADA STATE NEWS.

A few cases of scarlet fever are reported in Tuscarora.

The purchasing price of fine silver at the Carson Mint is $1 12.

There are now twenty "life" convicts in the Nevada State Prison.

Houses never rented for so little in Tuscarora, as at the present time.

At a meeting of the Au Fait Executive Committee in Carson on Friday evening it was resolved to hold two parties next month—one on the 3d and the other on the 17th.

The Pioche Record learns that most of the Eastern stockholders of the Raymond and Ely Company have paid up the $2 assessment levied upon the stock of that incorporation.

W. A. Harvey, a prominent Odd Fellow of Elko, died very suddenly about half-past twelve Friday. The funeral will take place to-day under the auspices of Elko Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F.

Naches, the Plute Chief, says Humboldt Lake is about dry, and where years ago water fowl of all kinds were plenty there are no geese, no pelicans, no ducks, and nothing that an Indian could live upon.

The Winnamucca Silver State says: J. S. Miller, of Harney Valley, is in town. He says there is not an Indian on the Malheur Reservation or anywhere near it, yet the Government is making improvements on the place.

There is now about $85,000,000 in gold bullion standing to the credit of the United States Treasurer, of which it has been decided to coin monthly $10,000,000 of the denominations of $5 and $10. No gold coins of less than $5 will be coined at present. The work will be performed at the Philadelphia Mint. It is thought this will be continued until the $85,000,000 in bullion on hand is worked up.

It is reported that William H. Vanderbilt and D. O. Mills are negotiating for a block of Union Pacific stock, which will give them control of the road. This claim that a controlling interest is for sale at $120, and Vanderbilt and Mills already own a large portion of the capital.

Robert T. Lincoln, son of President Lincoln, received the most and Alexander Campbell, the apostle of the Greenback lunacy, receives the least votes on the electoral ticket in Illinois.
